

SUBMISSION FORM

South Australian Heritage Council

Submission on whether the entry of Shed 26, Semaphore Road, New Port should be confirmed in the South Australian Heritage Register

The South Australian Heritage Council can only take into account heritage significance of a place as defined by the Heritage Places Act 1993 (Act) when considering places for entry on the South Australian Heritage Register. Using the table below, please provide evidence or information to explain why you believe the place does or does not meet the criteria under the Act.

Criteria

Criteria under the Heritage Places Act 1993 , section 16(1)	Provide evidence or other information why you believe criteria applies or does not apply to this place
(a) it demonstrates important aspects of the evolution or pattern of the State's history	Shed 26 stands as one of a few remaining maritime buildings on the Port Adelaide docks which exemplify the State's maritime history. The visual sawtooth roof shed is a striking maritime building on the docks and under that roof, various engineering activities involving maintenance, fabrication and modernization were carried out through the South Australian Harbor Board from the mid 1950's to late 1980's. Shed 26 represent a key element of the continuum of the Port Adelaide maritime history and we have a unique opportunity to continue this historical story through repurposing Shed 26 for current and future generations. There are many examples in Australia and overseas of maritime spaces that fall into disrepair and are then rejuvenated through adaptive reuse. The alternative, the demolition of Shed 26, will create a residential development unrelated and lost to our maritime history.

(b) it has rare, uncommon or endangered qualities that are of cultural significance
(c) it may yield information that will contribute to an understanding of the State's history, including its natural history
(d) it is an outstanding representative of a particular class of places of cultural significance
(e) it demonstrates a high degree of creative, aesthetic or technical accomplishment or is an outstanding representative of particular construction techniques or design characteristics
(f) it has strong cultural or spiritual associations for the community or a group within it	My local community is strongly connected to the maritime space of Port Adelaide and the cohesive link to the maritime working class culture that continues to influence the local community today. Shed 26, built in 1956 is an important element in the continuum of the maritime Port Adelaide history and a visual and historical marker of the industrial modernisation era of Fletcher Slip docklands, the evolutionary link from the mid 1800's establishment of the Port to today and the future of this maritime precinct. I am reminded of this maritime historical link every time I step off the train at the Glanville train station and look out on Shed 26. Repurposing of this sawtooth roof building will revitalize and add to the rich continuum of this maritime space and will be enjoyed and appreciated by future generations.

(g) it has a special association with the life or work of a person or organisation or an event of historical importance

Shed 26 represents a point in time in our state's maritime history. It was the era of the South Australian Harbor Board from the mid 1950's to late 1980's and the industrial modernisation phase of our maritime historical story. The men who worked in this building as young apprentices tell the stories of the engineering works carried out and the social and economic impact of Shed 26 during those years. As a local community person, I value the rich history of maritime Port Adelaide and see the repurposing of Shed 26 as a wonderful opportunity to stay richly connected with our maritime Port Adelaide history and integrate a repurposed Shed 26 into the new residential space.
