

SUBMISSION FORM

South Australian Heritage Council

Submission on whether the entry of Shed 26, Semaphore Road, New Port should be confirmed in the South Australian Heritage Register

The South Australian Heritage Council can only take into account heritage significance of a place as defined by the Heritage Places Act 1993 (Act) when considering places for entry on the South Australian Heritage Register. Using the table below, please provide evidence or information to explain why you believe the place does or does not meet the criteria under the Act.

Criteria

Criteria under the Heritage Places Act 1993 , section 16(1)	Provide evidence or other information why you believe criteria applies or does not apply to this place
(a) it demonstrates important aspects of the evolution or pattern of the State's history	The significant aspect of Shed 26 is that it is the last remaining example of this type of industrial architecture and construction on the Port River. Its striking design is symbolic of an era that has passed. The importance of retaining elements of our industrial history is to serve the public's collective memory.
(b) it has rare, uncommon or endangered qualities that are of cultural significance

SUBMISSION FORM

(c) it may yield information that will contribute to an understanding of the State's history, including its natural history
(d) it is an outstanding representative of a particular class of places of cultural significance
(e) it demonstrates a high degree of creative, aesthetic or technical accomplishment or is an outstanding representative of particular construction techniques or design characteristics	Shed 26 is a building that adds to the character of the Port Adelaide area. The character of the area is unique to the State and draws people to visit. Demolishing Shed 26 from the landscape changes the very reason why people find Port Adelaide appealing.
(f) it has strong cultural or spiritual associations for the community or a group within it

SUBMISSION FORM

(g) it has a special association with the life or work of a person or organisation or an event of historical importance
